

Respect

Match day Environment

Sportsmanship & Incidents

100

-

95

- Respect poster, banner, sign displayed, Respect Codes of Conduct displayed - if appropriate place to display
- Designated Spectator Barrier present and all spectators stand in correct place throughout the game
- Respect Handshake performed before and after the game
- Every player clearly understands that the referee's decisions are to be respected, whether correct or incorrect.
- All managers/coaches/parents/spectators show evidence of praise and encouragement for both teams throughout the game.
- No negative comments are heard throughout the game
- Members of the team offer genuine thanks to the referee and opponents
- The Club Welfare Officer/Respect Lead sends in a letter to the League Respect Officer congratulating the team on this achievement

- All present made to feel welcome
- All Club match day administration completed correctly and players ready for a prompt kick off
- Every effort taken to appoint an appropriate referee

- A perfect match
- No dissent, no questioning of decisions (other than politely by the team captain)
- No abuse of the referee by members of the team, spectators or coaching staff.
- There will be minimal, if any, appealing for decisions.
- Everyone will have enjoyed every aspect of this encounter.

94

-

80

- Respect poster, banner, sign displayed
- Respect Codes of Conduct displayed - if appropriate place to display
- Designated Spectator Barrier present and all spectators stand in correct place throughout the game
- Respect Handshake performed before and after the game
- Most players clearly understand that the referees decisions are to be respected, whether correct or incorrect
- Most managers/coaches/parents/spectators show evidence of praise and encouragement for both teams throughout the game.
- Comments heard during the game are mostly positive and evidence seen that any individuals shouting negative comments are addressed
- Members of the team offer thanks to the referee and opponents

- All present made to feel welcome
- A score would be awarded in this category if most of the above are correct with one or two minor club match day administration errors
- Every effort taken to appoint an appropriate referee

- There may have been some unnecessary appealing of decisions and some very minor questioning of decisions.
- There may have been a single example of unsporting behaviour that is dealt with promptly and firmly by the team officials.
- The players accept the referees decision

79 - 65	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Respect poster, banner, sign displayed • Respect Codes of Conduct not displayed - if appropriate place to display • Designated Spectator Barrier present and all spectators stand in correct place for most of the time, evidence that club address individuals who aren't standing in the correct place • Respect Handshake performed before and after the game • Most players understand that the referees decisions are to be respected, whether correct or incorrect and evidence that action is taken to educate players who question referee decisions • There is evidence of most managers/coaches/parents/spectators offering praise and encouragement for most of the game but for the home team only • Some members of the team offer thanks to the referee and opponents 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Most present made to feel welcome • A score would be awarded in this category if there were several club match day administration errors • Some effort taken to appoint an appropriate referee 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Players will have questioned referee decisions on a number of occasions but have accepted the decision • On the whole there was evidence of sporting behaviour.
64 - 51	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Respect poster, banner, sign not displayed • Respect Codes of Conduct not displayed - if appropriate place to display • Designated Spectator Barrier present but not effective in encouraging spectators to stand in the correct place • Respect Handshake performed before the game but not after the game • Most players understand the referees decisions are to be respected, whether correct or incorrect but no evidence that action is taken to educate players who question referee decisions • There is little evidence of most managers/coaches/parents/spectators offering praise and encouragement during the game for either the home/away teams. Negative comments are heard from one or two individuals only. • A small number of the team offer thanks to the referee and opponents • You feel that marking a team in this category is in the best interests of all concerned in helping improve and raise standards 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some present made to feel welcome • A score would be awarded in this category if there were multiple club match day administration errors • No effort taken to appoint an appropriate referee but a suitable referee was appointed on the day went ahead without incident • You feel that marking a team in this category is in the best interests of all concerned in helping improve and raise standards 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The team's players were appealing and questioning referee decisions continually and were reluctant to accept the decisions on occasions. • There was some evidence that club officials were addressing the situation but this evidence was inconsistent. • The teams contribution to the game made it undesirable at times • You feel that marking a team in this category is in the best interests of all concerned in helping improve and raise standards
50 or less	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A score of 50 or below in any category must be accompanied by an explanation email for the score to the appropriate age group registrar 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A score of 50 or below in any category must be accompanied by an explanation email for the score to the appropriate age group registrar 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A score of 50 or below in any category must be accompanied by an explanation email for the score to the appropriate age group registrar